...so you know the best part is at the beginning, or the end of the video. So then you take those 2 clips and use a very basic video editor to combine them into a video. Check out the codepen and the example. A: I am really no expert in jQuery, but a while ago I came across this site that has solved my problem, and which is really easy to use. It even has all the features one would need, and you can choose between different filetypes (all of them are supported). I am not giving away any information here, only showing you that it can be done and that it has worked for me. M. Ali Jaan (film) M. Ali Jaan is a 1958 Indian Malayalam film, directed by P.
